The following families were represented:

Bailey	O'shia	Mahan	M.Urish	Watkins	Mann
Waisner	Smith	Overstreet	Gilbert	Glann	Ellis
Manthe	Chick	Edwards	Wilcox	Waisner	Oldham
W.Urish	Howard	Mauro

April Meeting minutes were distributed and approved without changes.

Treasurer report was distributed and reviewed.

Sign up sheets for the Monza were handed out for members to sign up.

Track work day will be May 16, 2009 with night practice to follow. Covering the flagstand will be a priority.

Housekeeping was discussed. If you use the track for practice please clean up after yourself.

Please make sure the gates are locked back up when you are finished practicing.

Members were asked if anyone could provide any large fans for the Monza. If so please contact Jennifer Oldham.

Stephanine Edwards urged members to sign up to volunteer for the Monza. She also asked for up to $300.00 to buy stuff for the kids goodie bags and kids raffle for the Monza. The motion passed.

Concession help was brought up. A motion was made to hire help for the kitchen. The motion passed. Cathy Mauro will handle this.

We have a flagman. Matt Field has offered to help us out.

Rules for R7 are available on the TKQMA website.

We will be ordering checkered flags for the place patches. Please let Tracy Glann know which classes your driver will be racing in.

Proposed changes to TKQMA Racing Rules and Regulation were reviewed. The major change deals with transponders for qualifying. QMA has changed their scoring procedures. The changes to our procedures would omit "v. A car lacking a transponder will not be timed or scored" to align with the 2009 QMA Scoring Procedures.

#17 was added under TKQMA Club Points Championships in the TKQMA racing rules.

Motion was made to accept the proposed changes and was passed. A motion was made to make the changes retroactive. The motion was passed.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:36 p.m.
